TEXAS NATIONALIST MOVEMENT

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

The Honorable Gina Hinojosa
Governor-Elect of Texas

The Honorable Vikki Goodwin
Lieutenant Governor-Elect of Texas

NOVEMBER 16, 2026

Governor-Elect Hinojosa and Lieutenant Governor-Elect Goodwin,

On November 5, I sent both of your teams an open letter about letting Texans vote on independence. That morning the Governor-Elect's campaign sent an automatic reply saying it aims to answer every message within 5 to 7 days. Eleven days later, we haven't heard from either office.

I know how full the transition weeks are. However, bill filing for the 90th Legislature opened on November 9, and a bill to let Texans vote on independence will reach both of your offices after January 12.

So I'm asking again. Either of two answers would do: sign the Texas First Pledge at taketexasback.com, or answer one question in public. Should Texans get a vote on independence, yes or no? Saying yes doesn't require supporting independence, only applying to it the rule both campaigns applied to vouchers, casinos and THC. The Governor-Elect put that rule in three words in February 2025: "Let Texans Vote."

I'm also asking both of you to back the bill and the vote it calls for. Lieutenant Governor-Elect Goodwin, as the Senate's presiding officer, please refer it to a committee that will vote on it.

On Monday, November 23, we will publish an update. Any answer that arrives before then will run in full, and the more than 700,000 Texans who have signed up with this movement will see it. If either team would rather talk first, I'll meet with them in Austin any day this week.

Respectfully,

Daniel Miller
